

I wish to let you know I support the ARRL proposal RM-10867 . It is a fair and well thought out plan. The code has long past it usefulness. There are some people that still love code and that is fine let them have the code but don't force code on people that have no desire to use it. I hope you listen and go with this plan as it takes what most "Hams" feel across the country.